The Daily Bulletin.

MONDAY, SEPT. 18, 1882.

It is Told of Turner that he did not consider his labors over when he had sent in his pictures to the exhibitions; he would wait till the hangers had done their work, and then on the varnishing-day would by a few magical touches, so alter the tone of his work that all the neighboring canvases looked like foils carefully arranged to set off this one particular picture in the whole room. "He has been here and fired off a gun," said Constable, on one occasion, when he found that the introduction at the last moment of a piece of scarlet about the size of a quarter into a gray sea-piece of Turner's had completely killed the color of his own picture, which represented a pageant of boats at the open-of Waterloo Bridge. On the opposite wall there hung in the same exhibition a picture of "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego in the Fiery Furnace." Cooper, who was present, said to Constable, "A coal has bounced across the room from Jones's picture, and set fire to Turner's 'Sea.'"

Why is Gladstone like a potato? Because he is always in an Irish-Sweat.
